International Voices Magazine

The International Voices Magazine is looking to establish a collaborative space for creative and literary dialogue between domestic and international students. The goal of this club is to create a magazine that will be published at the end of each school year, which will showcase art and print works submitted by any Lehigh student. They currently have 40 members, 24 of which are first-year students. They plan to participate in the International Bazaar and host editing workshops. They will be looking for funding from the English and Global Studies Departments. This club is seeking preliminary recognition from Senate in order to increase club awareness and for support from the school.

It is the recommendation of the Club Affairs Committee that Student Senate XXIX accept the International Voices Magazine for preliminary recognition.
